Re: Francis Austin v. Fordham University
Case No. 1:23-cv-04696-PAC

Dear Judge Crotty:

This firm represents defendant Fordham University (“Fordham”) in the above-referenced action. We write in response to Plaintiff’s letter dated January 24, 2024 regarding the parties’ failure to agree on the terms of a Stipulation and Proposed Confidentiality Order (the “Confidentiality Order”). Specifically, Fordham opposes Plaintiff Francis Austin’s (“Plaintiff”) request to include language in the Confidentiality Order which would grant Plaintiff the unfettered right to mark documents “Attorney’s Eyes Only.”

While Plaintiff indicates in his letter that this designation would only be used on sensitive medical documents and would only apply to Third-Party Defendant Patrick Sweeney (“Sweeney”), this is not made clear in the proposed Confidentiality Order attached to Plaintiff’s letter. Further, while Plaintiff states in his letter that marking documents Attorney’s Eyes Only “does not preclude any designated documents’ full and free use at deposition or trial” that is also not made clear in the proposed Confidentiality Order.

Fordham simply seeks to ensure that it is able to review and analyze all documents relevant to this matter, including Plaintiff’s medical documents, as it prepares its defense. Fordham also wishes to preserve its right to utilize any such relevant documents, including but not limited to, at future depositions, including Sweeney’s deposition, and a trial. As such, Fordham respectfully requests a conference before Your Honor to address this issue.

Thank you for your courtesies in this matter.

Respectfully,

/s/ Ryan Soebke
